

Season 6 of "Dance212" is coming to a computer near you! Plus, Valentina Kozlova shares her competition secrets and The Dirt with The Addams Family Musical's Karla Puno Garcia.

Meet the Cast of "Dance212: Spring Session"

Want the scoop on what it's really like to be a dancer in the Big Apple? You're in luck, because "Dance212" is back on the web for a sixth season. Starting this month, cameras watch as five young dancers traverse class, rehearsals and the NYC streets. DS caught up with the stars of the show so you could learn a little about them. —Rachel Zar

DAPHNE LEE, 21, is a junior in the Ailey/Fordham BFA program and an apprentice with Ailey II.

GUILTY PLEASURE: Cupcakes and gummy bears. "I have a really big sweet tooth."

FUN FACT: Daphne appears shy at first, but don't be fooled. "When hanging out with my friends, I tend to be the clown of the group, doing silly things that no one would ever think I was capable of."

VICTORIA GREMPEL, 18, is a senior at the Professional Children's School and studies at The School at Steps.

FAVORITE NYC ACTIVITY: Victoria has great style and loves shopping at thrift stores in Brooklyn. "There are so many hidden treasures!"

NON-DANCE TALENT: "I was a competitive ice skater. I competed all around the metropolitan area, winning first place in Lake Placid two years in a row."

CATHERINE HURLIN, 16, is a student at The Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis School at American Ballet Theatre.

NON-DANCE TALENTS:

"I can do a mean manicure and pedicure. I'm not really allowed to wear nail polish in class, but I collect it and do my nails when I have time off."

GUILTY PLEASURE: Shoes. "When I get my first paycheck from any job, I try my best to keep it away from my mother so I can shop for shoes instead of putting it in my bank account."

ASHLEY HOD, 16, is in level C2 at the School of American Ballet.

FAVORITE NYC ACTIVITY:

"I love watching NBA basketball games with my dad and brother. The New York Knicks are my favorite team."

FUN FACT: "I can sing like The Chipmunks. I'm always singing the latest pop hits with my chipmunk voice. My friends and family find it very entertaining."

SIMONE GUNDERSEN,

20, is part of the Professional Semester at Broadway Dance Center, concentrating on both hip hop and jazz.

NON-DANCE TALENT:

Photography. "I've done headshots, family portraits, senior photos and decorative wall art."

FUN FACT: "I am a European soccer super-fan."

CHECK OUT THE SEASON PREMIERE on May 21 at dance212.com. And tune in every day for a new episode!